

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Walking the Talk: Museums Lead the Way on the Path of Social Justice

Check out these resources related to the program topic and presentations. Special thanks to Fraidy Aber, Director of Education and Public Programs at the Contemporary Jewish Museum for references related to the Museums and Social Justice course at USF:

Permanent and Upcoming Exhibits

- Chinese Historical Society of America, San Francisco - Chinese American Exclusion / Inclusion. This exhibition questions what it means to be an American. It touches on topics such as immigration, discrimination, politics, war, and community building. For more information, visit: <https://chsa.org/exhibits/chineseamerican/>
- Triton Museum, Santa Clara - ArtsAble: Seeing the Unseen. Part of a season of exhibitions surrounding the theme ArtsAble: Finding Vision and Voice for People with Disability. For more information, visit: http://www.tritonmuseum.org/exhibitions\_artsAble.php
- Santa Cruz Museum of Art and History - Lost Childhoods: Voices of Santa Cruz County Foster Youth and the Foster Youth Museum. For more information, visit: <https://santacruzmah.org/2016/lost-childhoods-july-7-2017-december-31-2017/>
- San Jose Museum of Art - Beta Space: Victor Cartagena. The artist partners with the Salinas United Farmworkers Foundation to spotlight the lives and stories of the people who help feed populations across the United States. For more information, visit: <http://sjmusart.org/exhibition/beta-space-victor-cartagena>

Web Sites and Blogs

- Art Museum Teaching , Have Conversations Here: Supporting Productive Dialogue in Museums: <https://artmuseumteaching.com/2016/08/31/have-conversations-here/>
- Art Museum Teaching, Urgency of Empathy and Social Impact in Museums: <https://artmuseumteaching.com/2016/07/11/the-urgency-of-empathy-social-impact-in-museums/>
- Center for the Future of Museums, What's in a Name? A Resource for Difficult Conversations <http://futureofmuseums.blogspot.com/2017/01/whats-in-name-resource-for-difficult.html>
- Center for the Future of Museums, Using comics to have difficult conversations in museums, <http://ht.ly/gn0j50bg4zP>
- The Empathetic Museum, <http://empatheticmuseum.weebly.com/updates>
- The Inclusion, a project dedicated to issues related to inclusion in museums. For more information, visit: <https://inclusion.com/>
- Oakland Museum of California, All Power to the People: The Black Panthers at 50. The website includes information on walking tours of historic sites in Oakland, curriculum, and videos of community members sharing their thoughts on the Panthers. For more information, visit: <http://museumca.org/exhibit/all-power-people-black-panthers-50>

Publications:

- Museums Equality and Social Justice, edited by Eithne Nightingale and Richard Sandell. 2012. Chapter 1. The Heart of the Matter. By Eithne Nightingale and Chandan Mahal was used as the exhibition textbook for the course: Museums and Social Justice at USF. For more information, visit the chapter web page.
- The Inclusive Museum: A Framework for Sustainable and Authentic Institutional Change, Cecilia Garibay and Laura Huerta Migus. Click the document link.